Date For Your Diary:

Clive Carroll's 1000 Years Of

Music - 30 November

The Clive Carroll acoustic guitar concert starts the winter season of events in the Village Hall with a magical musical journey in which Clive plays music from 12th Century Rounds and Bach through to the Kaiser Chiefs via 16th Century lute songs, Spanish guitar music, South American tangos, Django Reinhardt jazz, Beatles songs and Cold Play!

This is a joyful fairground ride of instrumental styles spanning the fields of traditional, classical and jazz with inspirations running from newgrass and fusion jazz to Irish stylings.

We are trying this concert as a club setting and helping it along not only with a licensed bar and nibbles but also a complimentary first drink!

Clive Carroll has had excellent reviews and he comes to us the day after a concert in the Holywell Rooms Oxford.

'Clive Carroll looks set to become the latest acoustic guitar hero. This virtuoso instrumental set is remarkable for its sheer bravery and variety.' The Guardian.

So book the date – Friday 30th November and come along. Tickets (£8, discounts £7.50) will be available next month from Sue Granger 01235 861253 & Chris Druce 01235 834285
