Thank You

Thank you to all who supported the Open Garden and sale at Roamers on Sunday 19th April. We raised £342.50 for SeeSaw in spite of a cold and sunless day.

Two Chilton Artists Exhibit

Ken Messer and Lin Kerr will be exhibiting in the beautiful garden studio of Susanna Brunskill during ARTWEEKS. All three are watercolourists, and the studio is a treat in itself, in the cottage garden of a traditional thatched home in Aston Tirrold.

Please pop in and visit and make a day of touring art studios in Southern Oxfordshire! You can collect guides and trail maps at Savages or Q Gardens.

Chilton Festival - Saturday 6 June

Preparations are under way for the 2015 Chilton Village Festival that will take place on Saturday 6 June 2015.

The event will build on the success of last year's Festival and is aimed at further strengthening the bonds of the expanding Chilton Village Community. The Festival will be an ideal venue to showcase and promote the activities of local clubs, societies, businesses and individual/group performers.

This year's event will be centred on the newly expanded and refurbished Chilton Village Hall and, as last year, will coincide with the commemoration service at the Harwell Campus memorial stone which will be organised by The Royal British Legion.

This is a non-profit event and relies on volunteers, local groups, businesses and individuals to get actively involved. Therefore, if you wish to:

- Volunteer to assist in organising the Festival,
- Provide a stall, act or demonstration,
- Provide sponsorship
- Or have a good idea for making the event enjoyable and fun

Then please contact or e-mail Bob Girling at gnilrig@gmail.com

We are pleased to thank Vale of White Horse District Council which has awarded the Festival a generous grant of £1000 in support of the event. For further updates please check out the Chilton Village Festival Blog:

This is your Festival so please get involved and put the date in your diary!
